

NeUUrodiversity

Neurodiversity & Unitarian Universalist Principles

Free national webinar this Sunday, 13 April 2025, 12:00 to 1:30 pm pt

At that time, click here: <https://zoom.us/j/963297758>

Moderator: Intern Ember Morgan-Wigmore (on right)
Unitarian Universalist Church in Eugene

Join Ember and our diverse group of panelists, all of whom identify as neurodiverse. Ember says, "I believe that neurodiversity inclusion is central to our principles, in which each individual is inherently worthy of engaging their spiritual path in ways that allow for our diverse, amazing brains to fully realize our potential."

All welcome from anywhere, any faith. Questions & comments encouraged! Or just watch anonymously.

Eugene community is invited to view in the UUCE Sanctuary starting at 11:30 am: 1685 W 13th Ave. While you wait, enjoy free refreshments & live music by folk singer and guitarist David Rogers.

Sponsored by Accessibility Task Force for Unitarian Universalist Church in Eugene.
Email to ATF and we'll add you to our Access News list: access@uueugene.org ASL interpreted.
